1	We have been given all the information and tools needed to pass this course with an "A" or "B". The instructor has been very patient and helpful along the way. I understand that there may have been other students taking other courses at the same time, and it is my opinion that any student who fails this class does so because they did not care to put in the required study time or interest. I have no complaints with anything in this course.	6/15/2016 11:16 AM
