GR 504 Management Theory and Practice Online

1	Dear All, I had a problem with a classmate who was on the same group project I was working on. She had concerns which she did not share with the group or the tutor until the day before the project was due (towards the end of the semester). Her concerns were very minor and could have easily been resolved along the way if that student communicated her issue. In the end, I was left alone on the team and lost my desire to continue the course knowing the weight of that assignment would threaten my overall grade. Outside of this experience, I enjoyed the course, the interaction with the students and have been overall very happy with my enrollment at ICCI. So far I have completed 10 classes and presently enrolled in the final two lessons. My experience here has been full of hard work, sleepless nights, sacrifices and 5 day seminars abroad that I could only manage to squeeze in 2 hours for souvenir shopping. That's what it took to get the work done and it was alllll worth it. Some classes were more challenging than others but I enjoyed the diversity. When I started the course, I was terrified of presentations, now, I am so confident and comfortable with standing in front of a group and sharing my knowledge. I am really happy I decided to study here at home in Cayman. Choosing ICCI was the best decision for me. Thank you ICCI for making it happen. Congrats and team members!	6/20/2016 10:50 PM
